

Anglican Network in Canada

The Anglican Network in Canada (ANiC) is a diocese in the 100,000-member Anglican Church in North America and part of the worldwide Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans. Our churches are spread from Vancouver Island to St John's, Newfoundland.

ANiC is part of a resurgence in North America of orthodox Anglicanism – the historic, Biblically faithful, authentically Anglican way of following Jesus and being part of the “One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church”.

MISSION: Building Biblically faithful,
Gospel sharing, Anglican churches

We are building for the future by planting churches and raising up young leaders.

Our commitment is to proclaim the Good News, plant vibrant Anglican churches, and equip disciples who are growing in the knowledge and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ while boldly sharing the Gospel with others.

Profoundly beautiful and deeply thoughtful, traditional Anglican worship is firmly rooted in ancient church history.

Since it emerged from the 16th century Reformation, Anglicanism has enriched the broader Christian community and contributed influential Christian leaders – such as William Wilberforce, C S Lewis, J I Packer, John Stott and J C Ryle.

Globally, Anglicans number 70 million, the majority in Biblically faithful African churches.

We're working with others in North America to plant 1000 new Anglican churches.

ANiC's Asian and Multicultural Ministries in Canada plants churches among ethnic and new immigrant communities. (See AMMiC.ca)
