

ANiC Council Nominations

Preamble

The ANiC Council is composed of ten members, 5 lay and 5 clerics, plus the Diocesan Bishop who chairs the Council. Two of the lay positions will become vacant as a result of their terms coming to an end. In response to these vacancies, the Board accepted the ANiC Council Nominations Committee's report presenting the following slate for their consideration on October 23rd. This slate is now being presented to Synod for the consideration of all voting delegates.

The Slate

Lay – Ed Lewis

Lay – Zenia Cheng

Ed Lewis

Ed is a Professional Engineer with a Masters Degree in Engineering from McMaster University and an undergraduate degree in Engineering from the University of Saskatchewan. He is retired from the federal government after 33 years in engineering, scientific, and executive positions. Ed has published two books and many papers on ice and ice research, and has lectured on related subjects around the world. He has travelled extensively both for business and pleasure.

Ed has been married to Dyanna for 48 years and has two adult children both recently married.

He has attended St George's Lowville for more than 32 years serving in many capacities including co-leading the youth program for 11 years, teaching Sunday school, serving as warden and currently chairing Parish Council. He accepted Jesus as his personal saviour in 1984.

Ed has chaired the Finance and Audit Committee for the past two years and managed the ANiC insurance program since 2008.

He gardens, reads extensively, plays bridge, and is an avid woodworker.

Zenia Cheng

Zenia was a Senior Executive Officer with the Hong Kong Government prior to moving to Canada in 1988. She worked as the Administrator for the Anglican Coalition in Canada (currently called Anglican Mission in Canada). She is now retired from the workforce and devotes much of her time to Church Ministry.

Zenia is an active member of St. Matthias and St. Luke Church, serving as the Board Director and Secretary, and Worship Committee Co-Chair. She also has experience as the Volunteer Music Director, Sunday school teacher, and Bible Study Leader. She has held numerous other volunteer roles in the Church and broader community.

Zenia was an active leader in the struggle with the ACC Diocese as her parish walked out of the Diocese of New Westminster Synod in 2002.

She is happily married with two adult children. Her entire family is also very active in Church ministry. Zenia has a passion for music and enjoys sharing her gifts through singing and playing the organ for others.
