

FAITH AND A SECULAR AGE

Christianity & Islam

Saturday, Nov. 6 at 7:00 pm

223 Main Street

The Amphitheatre

 UNIVERSITÉ SAINT-PAUL
SAINT PAUL UNIVERSITY

Faculté de Théologie / Faculty of Theology

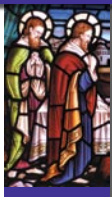

Bishop Michael Nazir-Ali

In western culture we live in a time when the “conditions of belief” have changed such that religious faith and practice is no longer the rule, but the exception. Even so, in our globalized world we hear a plurality of resurgent religious voices vying for our attention. This address will consider the respective histories of these two prominent religions with a view to understanding how we might live together amid the common challenges presented by our secular age.

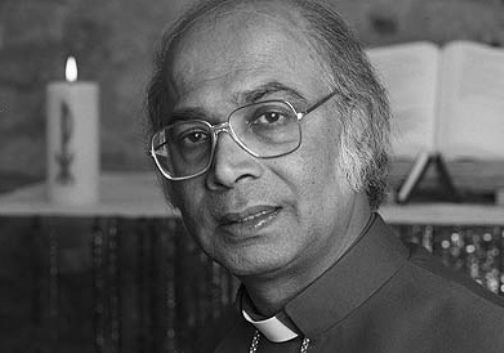

ST. GEORGE'S
ANGLICAN CHURCH

Transforming broken lives into world-changing disciples

125
YEARS

A CONGREGATION OF THE ANGLICAN NETWORK IN CANADA

Bishop Michael Nazir-Ali

has led the church in both Pakistan and England, serving in the latter as Bishop of Rochester for fifteen years. He was the General Secretary of the Church Mission Society and was Bishop of Raiwind in Pakistan. He is also a faculty member at the London School of Theology and holds Fellowships at both Oxford and Cambridge Universities. Some of his primary areas of expertise include inter-faith relations, bioethics, ecumenism, and the mission of the church.

OTHER EVENTS

Friday, November 5

Humble Conviction in the Halls of Power

12 noon, Parliament Hill

The Anglican Church:

Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

7:00 pm, Travelodge Hotel and

Conference Center, 1376 Carling Ave

Saturday, November 6

Talking about God in Post-Christian Culture

Brunch, St. Alban's Anglican Church

454 King Edward Avenue

Sunday, November 7

Community & Faith: Anniversary Eucharist Service

10:30 am, St. George's Anglican Church

152 Metcalfe Street

The Coming Global Christianity:

Mission, Persecution, Growth

7:00 pm, St. George's Anglican Church

152 Metcalfe Street

More info: <http://stgeorgesottawa.ca/nazir-ali>