

Partnering in mission: Peninsula Anglican Church (Vancouver Island) & King's Daughter's Ministry (Uganda)

“We would see Jesus”, Synod 2010

Anglican Network
in Canada

King's Daughter's Ministry (Uganda) & Peninsula Anglican Church

Vision

We want to be established as a “hub” parish to support the ongoing needs of the King's Daughters Ministry in Kampala Uganda

“We would see Jesus”, Synod 2010

Anglican Network
in Canada

King's Daughter's Ministry (Uganda)

KDM began as an initiative of Sally W'Afrika Orombi – the adopted daughter of Archbishop Henry and Phoebe Orombi

“We would see Jesus”, Synod 2010

Anglican Network
in Canada

King's Daughter's Ministry (Uganda)

Offering hope and purpose

- Ministry is run by Sally
- Provides a home for at-risk girls and young women
- Many of the residents are victims of abuse, neglect, poverty & abandonment
- KDM gives them gives a safe haven where they can heal, find their identity in Christ, receive education for vocation and blossom as women with a purpose

"We would see Jesus", Synod 2010

Anglican Network
in Canada

King's Daughter's Ministry (Uganda)

Building the parish support team

The Peninsula Anglican Church is in discussions with The Church of the Apostles, Fairfax, VA (CANA) to develop a “Friends of KDM” North American Board to help the ministry through:

1. Prayer
2. Finances
3. Daughter “adoption”
4. Opportunities for short-term missions

“We would see Jesus”, Synod 2010

Anglican Network
in Canada

“We would see Jesus”, Synod 2010

Anglican Network
in Canada