What to Expect

When you attend a Liveword conference, you can expect to be fed and taught. You will be fed not just physically, but also spiritually from God's Word. During the day, you will be taught by trained Bible teachers to read the Word of God carefully, working together with other women to draw out and apply the implications of the text. What happens when we read the Bible faithfully? We come to know and worship our God more deeply. Expect:

- To listen to and hear from God's Word

- To digest it with others through questions and discussion

- To reflect on God and His Word and its implications for our lives

- To worship and praise Him in prayer and song

Please remember to bring your Bible and a pen or pencil.

FREEDOM THROUGH GRACE

March 1, 2014
Vancouver, BC

Freedom Through Grace

Even after you've been a Christian for years, true spiritual freedom can seem elusive.

In his letter to the Galatians, the apostle Paul writes,

"For freedom Christ has set us free."

He wrestles with crucial questions like:

WHERE DOES TRUE freedom COME FROM?

WHAT CAN THREATEN AND BLOCK THAT freedom?

HOW CAN WE STAND FAST AND WALK IN THAT freedom DAY BY DAY?

Join us as we discover Paul's revolutionary gospel answers.

Our Speakers

are three women who lead ordinary lives yet share the desire to teach the Word of God to other women.

Danielle Martell

Danielle is a student at Regent College and is working on her Master's in Divinity. She has an undergraduate degree in Biblical Studies and has found that studying the Bible is her deepest joy in life. Danielle recently completed the Artizo ministry program at St. John's Vancouver. She loves to play Settlers of Catan, cook meals with friends, drink coffee, and watch The Lord of the Rings on repeat.

Bronwyn Short

Bron (as she prefers to be called) was born in Australia and studied and taught English and History, which engendered in her a deep love for young adult fiction, especially historical fiction. In 1991 she moved with her husband, David, and two sons to Canada. She loves to teach the Bible and equip others to do the same. Her affection for the epistle to the Galatians first began at university when she wrote a history essay on its impact on Martin Luther. She is praying that this letter will also powerfully affect each one of the women who attend Liveword this year.

Diane Tucker

Diane Tucker grew up in Vancouver, where she earned a B.F.A. from the University of B.C. She is the author of three books of poetry — God on His Haunches (Nightwood Editions, 1996), Bright Scarves of Hours, (Palimpsest Press, 2007) Bonsai Love (Harbour Publishing, 2014)

— and a young adult novel, His Sweet Favour (Thistlepress, 2009). When not writing she enjoys singing in her church choir, leading a women's Bible study and volunteering with Vancouver's Pacific Theatre.

What is Liveword?

Feeding on the Word of God -- Liveword aims to reach women of the Lower Mainland and beyond with biblical expository teaching, for the purpose of helping them grow to maturity in Christ. The vision arises from the conviction that the Bible, God's living and authoritative word, transforms lives. An expository message relates expressly to the Scripture text in context and draws implications directly from it. By this method, and in the power of the Holy Spirit, the Word of God is handled carefully to reflect its purpose and authority.

Liveword holds to the belief that all of God's Word is relevant for us today. Over time, we seek to look at the whole range of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation.

In our fast-pasted, fast food, instant messaging, results-oriented society, we can lose our sense of significance and purpose as God's children. The remedy is found in approaching His Word with humility and intention. God desires that His Word be a rich, nourishing meal that sustains us, not just a quick bite!

You are invited each year to enjoy and savour a rich meal with us!
