

ANiC Council Vacancies; Applications from laity welcome

The Diocese of the Anglican Network in Canada is seeking to fill two vacancies on the ANiC Council. Elections will take place at Synod, 21-23 October 2015 in Vancouver.

Both positions are for lay members of council and are for two-year terms, extending from Synod 2015 to Synod 2017.

The Rev Mike Stewart chairs the Nomination Committee and can be contacted – after July 31 – for more information and to request an application form. His email is mike@stmatthewsanglicanchurch.com.

Eligibility criteria and conditions of appointment include:

- Be a committed Christian and evidence godly character. Please see the requirements of Church leaders that the Apostle Paul outlines in 1 Timothy 3:1-13, 2 Timothy 2:1-13 and Titus 1:5-9.
- Adhere to ANiC's – and our Province's – Statements of Faith.
- Be a member of an ANiC Church for a least one year.
- Support ANiC financially as able.
- Be at least 18 years of age and a Canadian citizen or comply with Article 4 Section 1.4.1(e) of the ANiC Canons.

For more details please request from Mike+ the documents: "Expression of interest in standing for Election to the ANiC Council", and the "Duties and expectations of an ANiC Council member).
