

Hamilton Airport meeting point

If you are arriving at the Hamilton airport and have requested transportation to Burlington by conference volunteers please follow these directions to find the conference volunteers:

When you leave the arrival area in the Hamilton airport, turn right and look for Tim Horton's food area. Someone will be there with a "NETWORK" sign. From there, you will be transported by car or van to your hotel or billet.

If you have difficulty, please call conference volunteer travel coordinator, Michael McKenna at 416 562 0432 (cell).

Also, please print this page and bring it with you so you have the emergency contact number handy.
