

2010 Asian Mission Conference Project Coordinator

The Asian Mission in Canada is currently hiring a project staff member to organize and coordinate the Inaugural Asian Mission Conference to be held in Vancouver, British Columbia, in October 2010.

Position:

The successful candidate, under the direction of the Bishop for Asian Mission, will be responsible for the execution of resolutions and planning of the Conference Working Committee, liaison with the Bishop, ANiC communication officer, and church leaders for good communication, and the coordination of volunteers in the operation of the event. The position requires working from home office.

Qualifications:

The position requires knowledge and experience in working with the computer and various software programs, plus a good command of the English and Chinese languages spoken and written. The successful candidate will be a self-starter as well as a team player. Familiarity with and ongoing connections with the Greater Vancouver-area Asian-Canadian Christian community is an asset.

Compensation:

A lump sum amount will be paid out for the completion of the project.

To Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a resume, including the name of two references, by February 15, 2010 to:

The Right Reverend Stephen Leung
Anglican Network Church of the Good Shepherd
189 West 11th Avenue, Vancouver, BC V5Y 1S8
Fax: 604-873-1447
Email: sleung@anglicannetwork.ca

Applications will be short-listed. Only potential candidates will be approached.

The Organization:

The Asian Mission in Canada, a ministry of the Anglican Network in Canada launched in November 2009, is a mission to facilitate the development and growth of Asian Christian churches in Canada.

For details about the mission and ministries of the Asian Mission in Canada, please refer to the Mission's brochure downloadable from www.ancgoodshepherd.org or request a copy from the Anglican Network Church of the Good Shepherd.