Your Majesty,

On behalf of the Anglican Network in Canada, it is my privilege to congratulate you and wish you great joy on this your 90th birthday.

As Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England, you hold a special place in the hearts of Anglicans everywhere. Your faithfulness to duty, to country, to family and to the Church has won our deepest admiration and respect. We are so grateful for your godly leadership, example and witness and are so blessed to call you our Queen.

We join the Apostle Paul in saying, "I thank my God in all my remembrance of you." And we assure you of our regular prayers for Your Majesty and all the Royal Family.

As you begin this next decade we also pray for your continued good health and for much happiness.

Faithfully yours,
