

Let the Children
Come!

An event for children and their families (parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, and all who love them – especially those involved in ministry to kids)

Date: Saturday, September 20

Time: 9:30 – 11:30 am

Location: Good Shepherd Anglican Church, 189 West 11th Avenue, Vancouver

Children are close to the heart of God as well as to the heart of our new diocesan Bishop, Charlie Masters. Ministry to children is one of Bishop Charlie's priorities for ANiC.

In Matthew 19:15, we hear Jesus say, "Let the children come to me... for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." Matthew tells us that Jesus then laid his hands on the children to bless them.

This unique two-hour event is a special time of family worship, teaching, fun activities – including music, drama, and a family art project – as well as good food and good coffee. A highlight will be a special blessing by Bishop Charlie on each family and each child.

Kids will learn how precious they are to God and adults will learn how to talk to kids about God and how to pass on the faith from generation to generation.

To RSVP or for more information email: kids@sjvan.org

Anglican Network
in Canada

Let the Children
Come!

An event for children and their families (parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, and all who love them – especially those involved in ministry to kids)

Date: Saturday, September 20

Time: 9:30 – 11:30 am

Location: Good Shepherd Anglican Church, 189 West 11th Avenue, Vancouver

Children are close to the heart of God as well as to the heart of our new diocesan Bishop, Charlie Masters. Ministry to children is one of Bishop Charlie's priorities for ANiC.

In Matthew 19:15, we hear Jesus say, "Let the children come to me... for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." Matthew tells us that Jesus then laid his hands on the children to bless them.

This unique two-hour event is a special time of family worship, teaching, fun activities – including music, drama, and a family art project – as well as good food and good coffee. A highlight will be a special blessing by Bishop Charlie on each family and each child.

Kids will learn how precious they are to God and adults will learn how to talk to kids about God and how to pass on the faith from generation to generation.

To RSVP or for more information email: kids@sjvan.org

Anglican Network
in Canada