We have been greatly blessed by Keith Ganzer's Bible studies at the mini-Synod in Burlington and at the recent Synod in Ottawa. At this Clergy Event he will both open the scriptures for us as well as discuss the process of sermon preparation and delivery. The focus of our time together will be: MINISTERS OF A NEW COVENANT from the 2 Corinthians 2:12 - 4:18. Keith's talks will be a combination of lecture and sermon. After each talk there will be discussion and the application to sermon preparation. Our theme verse is, "For what we preach is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake" (2Cor. 4:5)

Guest Speaker – Keith Ganzer

Keith was born and raised in Pennsylvania and came to know the Lord in high school through the preaching in his local Baptist church. He attended Wheaton College (BA, Ancient Languages) and Wheaton College Graduate School (MA, Biblical Exegesis) in Wheaton, Illinois. At Wheaton, he met his future wife, Emily; they were married in 2005. In 2006, Keith moved to Vancouver to study at Regent College (MDiv with Anglican Studies). Keith and Emily began attending St. John's Vancouver Anglican Church, where Keith would eventually train for ministry with the Artizo Institute. After graduating from Regent, Keith was ordained in the Anglican Network in Canada and served as the curate at St. John's Vancouver. While on staff at St. John's, Keith also taught Greek and Hebrew at Regent College. In 2011, Keith and Emily moved to Montreal, where Keith served as the rector of Emmaus Anglican Church until June 2014. They now reside in Keith's hometown of Harborcreek, Pennsylvania. Keith and Emily have two daughters, Clara and Elanor. We are pleased to have him with us at our Clergy Event.
